Dedication 1985 Lamp

The 1985 yearbook staff is proud to dedicate this year's Golden Anniversary Lamp to Mrs. Christine Calalacava. Mrs. C. is a graduate of B.H.S., where she was an active member of the National Honor Society. It is especially appropriate that, in our anniversary year, the yearbook dedication go to one who has both received from and given to the school.

After high school, the then Miss Drummond, attended Central Connecticut State College, where she earned a degree in English and Sociology. She then moved on to Trinity College, which awarded her a Masters' Degree in English Literature.

Arriving back at her Alma Mater in 1968, she soon to be Mrs. Calalacava plunged right into the life of the school. In addition to being our Class Advisor, she has advised the school newspaper, literary magazine, and variety show.

We had very little discussion to decide upon a teacher whom we felt had been especially important to us in our four years at Berlin High School — we all thank you, Mrs. Calalacava!

In September of long ago 1981, our class launched its high school career without an advisor. This desperate situation was soon greatly improved when Mrs. Colaiacovo generously agreed to take us under her wing. Since that time, she has expertly and patiently guided us through spirit weeks, dances, and fundraisers too many to count. Without her hard work and devotion, this year's senior class would have had a greatly diminished experience at Berlin High.

Mrs. C., this busy lady, is not only an English teacher and Class Advisor. She is also a wife, mother, and our good friend. We truly appreciate the great amount of time and effort she has unselfishly contributed to our class. We wish her the best of luck and much happiness in the future.

Trivial Pursuit

Trivial Pursuit is the successful new board game that is sweeping the country. This game, a simple recreational tool, has a special relationship to the class of 1985. When carefully looked at, there are obvious similarities between the board game and the apparently trivial lives of the young adults of Berlin High School.

In the game, players take turns using their knowledge to move around the board, accumulate pieces of pie, and win the game. In the same way, students go through everyday life experiencing all that they can. Not only is each student taught facts, but he also gains knowledge on how to live. By simply experiencing everyday life, the student grows both individually and on a social level.

In Trivial Pursuit as in any game, there is competition between the players. The difference here is the sharing of each individual's knowledge with the group. As they answer questions, players apply what they know and benefit from each others' knowledge. The same is true in school. Students compete with each other in their own environment; this competition is prevalent in many forms, such as sports, grades, and other elections in school. Through these experiences, students are able to accumulate multitudes of small lessons and apply the knowledge learned to other situations.

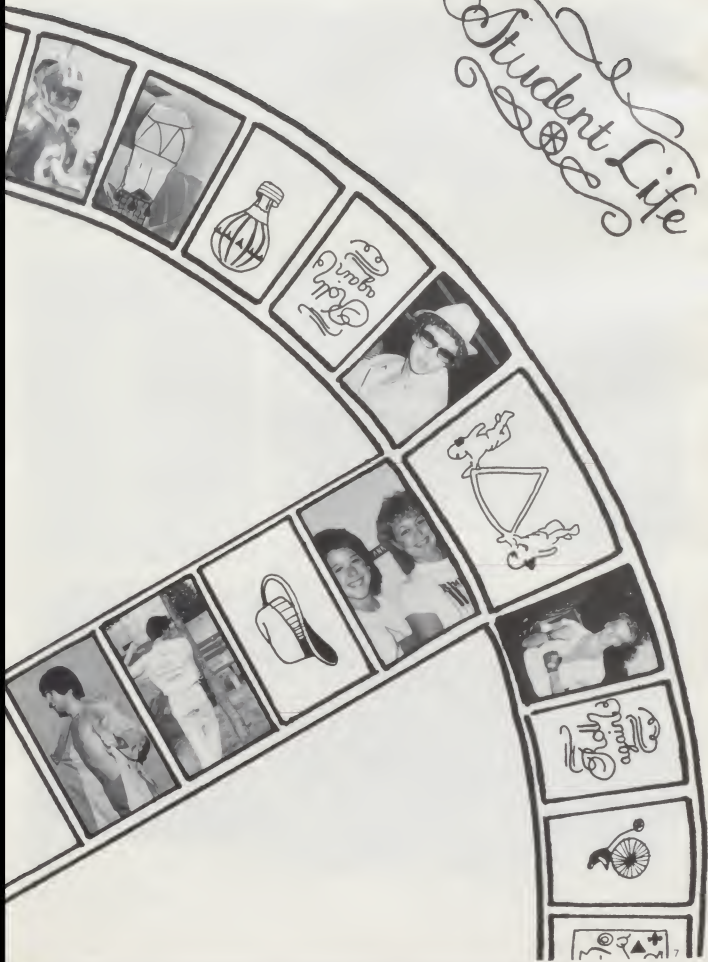

In Trivial Pursuit, if a player is successful in answering all of the necessary questions and completes a pie, he or she is the winner. Although the individual questions do not mean much alone, as a unit, or as a pie, they are very important. In the same way, students gain many small achievements in school, which after many years, add up to their completed "pie" and victory — a high school diploma. Once completed, this education is a base upon which a future can be built. It is a symbol of a student's hard work, dedication, and academic success.

Throughout this yearbook, the 1985 LAMP, the theme of Trivial Pursuit will be continued. It is the desire of the graduating Class of 1985 to step forward from their high school memories feeling that they have learned and grown in positive directions. Hopefully, some insight into the relationship between the game Trivial Pursuit and the Class of 1985 has been gained; this class will go beyond high school as individuals in pursuit of happiness, greater knowledge, and an understanding of life. It could cause one to ponder: Is the pursuit that they are on really so trivial?

Spirit Week, 1984

With the help of the BHS cheerleaders, this year's Spirit Week was a great success. The various activities held throughout the week helped psyche this year's football team for the first game.

Spirit Week began on September 10 with Sunglasses and Hat Day, followed by Hawaiian Day, Color Day, T-Shirt Day, and finally the pep rally on Friday.

At the pep rally, students enjoyed performances by the drill team, color guard, and varsity cheerleaders. Also, many contests were held, including: the pie eating contest, won by Ray Trowbridge; tricycle race, in which freshman Dwayne Sobosack sped to victory; toilet paper wrap, won by Lisa Moyette and Sherry Garcia; bubble gum blowing contest, blown by Laura Cayer; and tug-of-war, in which the senior class pulled to victory. Bret Geremia and Sharon English won the Mr. and Mrs. Legs Title, the sophomores won the miles-of-pennies, while the seniors took both winners awards for most spirit and best decorations. Overall, the spirit which was generated on this day and throughout the week contributed to the Redcoats first victory.

The Student Council is responsible for the planning of the days events, but all those participating are responsible for the success. Over 200 people turned out at what was the most elegant Homecoming Dance B.H.S. has ever seen. The band, Hard Knox, played a variety of music, and the red, white, and gold streamers were the perfect touch for a beautiful evening. Laurie Phaneuf, chairman to the dance, introduced the Queen and her court, giving them each a charm to remember this special day on behalf of the Council. Powder Puff Football

On November 11, 1984, the senior girls participated in a football game with the junior girls. The seniors, coached by Jeff Beol, showed tremendous effort, with only eleven girls playing the entire game. The foul weather conditions and lack of preparation on the seniors' part, led to a junior victory at 14-0. The juniors, coached by Bob Sisti, Greg Losky, Tony Leotto, Dorryl Wing, and other members of the junior class, played a good game; at least good enough to win.

Halloween Dress-Up Day

On October 31, 1984, many of the students dressed up to celebrate Halloween. To make the day more exciting, costumes were judged for originality. Amy Fronce and Jeff Olsen received recognition for their creativity. Dress-up Day has been a tradition throughout the years at Berlin High School and will hopefully remain for many more; it is a fun and exciting way to express spirit.

Girls' Service League Holiday Dance

This year, the Girls' Service League Holiday Dance was held on December 8. Green, white, gold, and red decorations helped to inspire a holiday spirit, and enthusiasm prevailed as students danced to music provided by "The Sytem." The King of this year's dance, chosen from Berlin High students in attendance, was Brad Geremio. He was presented with a single rose and a gift certificate donated by Mickey Finns.

Weeks of hard work and preparation by Girls' League members helped to make this year's dance a great success.

Junior Prom

On February 25, 1984 the Class of 1985 held it's Junior Prom at Capra's in Newington.

At the beginning of the night, each couple had pictures taken by Art Rich Photography. An elegantly catered dinner followed. The dancing began shortly after dinner. The band, Vance Chapman, played a variety of dancing music.

Later in the evening, the prom queen was announced. Laurie Phaneuf was announced queen and Sue Roman was the attendant. After the crowning, the theme song, "Truly," was led by Laurie Phaneuf and her escort Jeff Krug, and attendant Sue Roman and her escort Dave Magania. Then, all the other couples joined in a romantic slow dance.

The prom was a memorable evening for everyone. It was an evening of dancing and good times that will always be remembered.

The Varsity Cheerleading Squad, led by co-captains Susan Nadalny and Kelly DelGrosso, had a very exciting year. This year began with the traditional fall pep rally to pramare school spirit. At the Homecoming football game, the Varsity and Junior varsity cheerleaders made a joint effort to put on a spectacular performance that helped to bring added spirit to the game.

Shortly after the end of the football season, basketball season began, and the cheerleaders were ready to cheer at each game.

A lot of hard work and exhausting hours were put in by this year's squad to make it a success.

B.H.S. Marching Band

The Berlin High School Redcoat Marching Band had their most competitive year yet. Starting with their annual band camp in August, they prepared for their halftime show during the football season. They entertained the crowd with powerful music such as "Pictures at an Exhibition," "She Works Hard for the Money," "Putting on the Ritz," and "Softly as I Leave You." The 1985 Redcoat Marching Band is looking forward to performing in the "Main Street" parade in Disney World, Florida.

Not only is the Berlin High School Marching Band talented on the field, they also perform in the annual Holiday and Spring Concerts.

This year the band was under leadership of drum majors Rob Bosco, Patty Kaczynski, and Kevin Brigandi. Section Leaders were Beth Fusco, Karen Gajda, Julie St. Amand, Chris Karam, Jon Lomkins, and Matt McQueeney.

The Drill Team started the year kicking high at the pep rally to "Heart of Rock n' Roll" led by Co-Captains Doreen Albert and Dianne Fiori. The squad performed with the band during the football halftime to "She Works Hard for the Money." They also danced to the drum solo, "Putting on the Ritz." The captains and the seniors both contributed to the choreography of all the routines.

"Twist and Shout," played by the Pep Band, was the song that kept the Drill Team dancing through the basketball season. The Drill Team is proud of its contribution to the success of The Marching Band at several competitions. The girls continue to dazzle their audiences everywhere. Along with the Colour Guard, the Drill Team would like to extend its love and thanks to our advisor, Mrs. Frost.

Colour Guard

The Colour Guard started off its season by performing at the school pep rally. The members performed to "Let's Go Crazy" by Prince. They helped the school get psyched for the upcoming season.

The Colour Guard also performed throughout the entire halftime show during football games, and camped with the band in three competitions. The band entered in exhibition at Trumbull but camped at Fitch and Cheshire. At the competition in Cheshire, the Colour Guard along with the Drill Team, brought home a trophy for the best band front.

The Colour Guard also performed at halftime during the home basketball games. The group performed to "Celebration" by Kool and the Gang.

This year's Co-Captains Carla Stella and Patti Gantarz led the Colour Guard with the help of the senior members Tracy Hibbard, Lisa Villara, Alicia Blake, Kim Gagnan, and Paula Gantarz.

With the help of its newly appointed advisor Mrs. Vrostek, the Student Council, a group represented by seven members from each class, began a year filled with activity. Its first responsibility was to plan the 50th Anniversary Homecoming Dance. For several weeks members worked hard to make this year's Homecoming unforgettable for all who attended.

The next Student Council events took place within its newly-formed separate committees. The Constitution Committee, chaired by Anne DeVivo, proceeded to revise the Student Council Constitution. The Government Committee, led by Monica Marozkiewicz, elected Board of Education leaders and discussed the powers of the Council and the Ways and Means Committee, headed by Laurie Phaneuf and Lynn Spadolini, began to plan several school activities, such as a Valentine's Dance in February.

Members of the Student Council also sponsored the National Drugged and Drunk Driving Awareness Week in school, attempting to make students aware of the dangers of drugged and drunk driving. Several of the members also became involved in the organization of the Safe Rules program in Berlin.

This year's officers were Sue Nadolny, president; Barbara Agostini, Vice President; Gina Bozzuto, Corresponding Secretary; Diane Krall, Recording Secretary; and Deb Dobrowski, Treasurer.

With the help of advisor Mrs. D'Angelo, the Girls' League sponsored various service projects for the benefit of Berlin High and the community including Thanksgiving and Easter baskets for needy families in Berlin, the annual Holiday Dance, a Card Party — Fashion Show held in the Spring, and other smaller projects. Once again, Girls' League members teamed up with the National Honor Society to help the town with its annual census.

As every year, the money raised from the Card Party and the census was used to give a scholarship to a senior member planning to further her education.

This year, the Girls' Service League was led by officers Patti Gontarz, President; Paula Gontarz, Vice President; Leslie Dottor, Secretary; Donna Klapatch, Treasurer; and Cindy Dubuc, Historian.

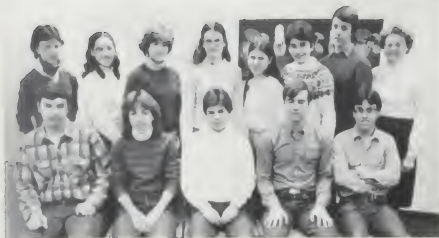

Morning Announcers

Several members of the Girls' Service League served Berlin High this year as morning announcers. The Math Team is a group of students that competes against other schools in areas of mathematics. Each student answers several math problems and receives points for his correct answers. Team placement depends on the scores of each individual and the number of points scored on other problems answered through a team effort.

This year, the Math Team was very successful. Berlin placed well or every meet, and especially in the December meet at Chaote, where Berlin High took first place.

Biology Club

The Biology Club has done many interesting things in recent years. This fall at Hammonasset State Park they collected marine specimens, explored the mosquito ditches, and waded through knee deep murky water looking for small fish. Another activity open to all Berlin High School students involved a boat ride exploring the waters off the Garen coast. The highlights of this trip were the collection of marine specimens, and the sighting of a Nuclear Submarine. In addition to going on field trips each member of the club conducts his own individual experiments.

In conclusion, Biology Club is interesting and educational for all those involved.

H.E.R.O.

H.E.R.O. Home Economics Related Occupations, is a group of students involved with the Cooking for a Crowd class. Every week the members of the group planned, prepared, and served a luncheon to various students in the school. H.E.R.O. also baked large quantities and desserts, donating them to several school functions such as dances, parent-teacher conferences, and various other activities. During Christmas, students worked hard for several weeks to construct gingerbread houses which were donated to convalescent homes here in town. They also invited Senior Citizens to attend a free holiday luncheon which was a great success. They also visited the University of New Haven for a state wide H.E.R.O. conference. Overall it was a very busy and successful year.

This year's officers for the H.E.R.O. club were, Cory Martin, President; Monica Marciczewicz, Vice President; and Elizabeth Aziz, Treasurer.

The main activities and services sponsored by the Honor Society are a tutorial program, the annual induction of new members, and the town-wide school census. The tutorial program is designed so that Honor Society members help underclassmen having difficulty in specific courses; this year, the program was a success for both N.H.S. members and underclassmen. The society also devoted a great deal of time to the annual induction. Originally scheduled for February 1, the induction was postponed until February 7 because of poor weather and an early dismissal at school. Twenty-two new members were inducted into the chapter, and many other students received certificates and book awards for repeatedly being on the honor roll. In the spring, the members of the National Honor Society, along with the Girls' Service League, once again conducted the school census.

Leadership was provided this year by officers Paula Gontarz, Diane Kroll, Anne DeVivo, and Liso Lindsoy.

LAMP

In September, amid much enthusiasm, the Lamp staff met for the first time. Officers were elected and responsibilities were fairly quickly recognized and assigned. The theme of Trivial Pursuit was selected unanimously. Likewise, the choice of Mrs. Coloiacove as the person who has been most important to the Class of 1985 was made without a dissenting voice. A meeting schedule of Tuesday and Friday afternoons was agreed upon, and we were off and flying.

Carlo Stello quickly assembled a staff and set about raising dollars to pay for production of the 1985 Lamp, a task which she had begun in August. As the year went on, Carlo, with Mr. Pasco's help, also managed the solid booth at the Berlin Fair, sold flowers, sold yearbooks, and laid out the ad pages of the book.

Mork Bors arranged for many pictures, and managed to show up to take most of them. Mork even lent a hand now and then to help lay out some of the books pages.

Literary Editors Monica Marciczewicz and Barbara Agostini supervised our many writers and rewriters, even to the extent of developing a schedule of assigned write ups matched to their writers. They also caught and corrected a great many examples of poor spelling and confused composition.

It is mostly due to the good work of Dione Krall that the Lamp has its distinctive graphic and line drawings. Dione's responsibilities also included establishing the basic layout format for the whole book and selecting materials for and drawing the artwork for the cover. The quality of Dione's work is apparent to all.

Michael Savio, the 1985 Lamp's Editor in Chief, did nothing and did everything. It was Michael's job to set up meetings and to parcel out assignments. Michael also had overall oversight for the book, its appearance, and its contents. The book is, as you see, complete: therefore, Michael must have done his job.

The above people were the chiefs — as is often the case, it was the Indians of the Lamp staff whose performances were truly essential. To mention just a few, when all deserve credit: Paulo Gontarz wrote, laid out pages, and typed, Doreen Albert assembled numerous pages, Jon Lomkins spent what must have seemed to him endless hours working on bond and sport pages, Jeff Spiegel rallied or the thankless but important task of assembling an index, Gina Bozzutto typed and typed, and Lisa Villoro — lost but certainly not least — simply did whatever needed to be done.

It has been a long year, and we have enjoyed it. You, the members of the Class of 1985, will decide if our efforts have been successful.

Football

The 1984 Redcoat Football squad battled to a better than 500 record of 5 wins and 4 losses overall, and a Northwest Conference record of 3 wins and 2 losses. Co-Captains Derek Sanderson and Kevin Budney led the team under the direction of Coach Pelligrinelli and Assistant Coaches Day, Pepe, Parash, Bacarra, and DiCicco.

Six players were honored by selection to the All-Conference Team. Derek Sanderson at running back and linebacker, Jeff Beal at defensive end, Ray Trowbridge as a defensive lineman, Kevin Budney an defense, and Bob Lamb and David Barbogalia as representatives on the second team.

At the end of the season, two players were singled out by their coaches for special recognition as players and team leaders. Co-Captain Derek Sanderson was awarded the Redcoat Award, and his fellow Co-Captain Kevin Budney received the Coaches' Award.

Soccer

The 1984 Berlin Boys' Soccer team completed its initial season with a three and eleven record. More important than the record was coach Caruso's success in attracting quality players, such as Tri Captains Joe Campagno, who was sidelined by a broken leg most of the season, Tim D'Addabbo, and John Marell.

Outstanding players for the season were Paul Violette, and John Marell. The Redcoat award was won by John Marell while Michael Lamaureaux received the Coaches' award.

Victories for the season included Sr. Paul, Goodwin Tech, and Wilcox Tech. All indications are for a long and successful future for boys' soccer at B.H.S.

Girls' Soccer

The Girls' Varsity Soccer team enjoyed an impressive 1984 season. Last year the team competed on the junior varsity level this year in its first season as a varsity member of the NWJ. The young and determined club finished at 3 and 9 on the season, and third in the conference.

The Lady Redcoats were led by senior Tri-Captains Sue Austin, Debbie Dobrowski, and Sharon English. Other standout performers were freshman Robyn Treverhan, sophomores Patty Bittner, and goalie Dawn Battaglia. Debbie Dobrowski won the 1985 Redcoat Award and Sue Austin received the Coach's Award as the team M.V.P. Robyn Treverhan, the squad's leading scorer, was awarded a special Outstanding Achievement citation. Sue Austin and Robyn Treverhan were also named to the All-Conference Second Team.

The strong defensive game of the Lady Redcoats was directed by Sue Austin, Aggie DiIorio, and Dawn Battaglia. The forward line, which improved greatly over the course of the season, included Michelle Boissoneau, Patty Bittner, Amy Jacobson, and Robyn Treverhan. Important contributions were also delivered by Donna Klapatch, Chris Senaldi, Chris Pashman, Ann Hodgson, Hodgson, and Tracy Bartlett.

Head Coach Sheila McCabe and Assistant Coach Cindy Mastri anticipate an even more successful 1985 season.

Cross Country

The 1984 Redcoat Cross Country team put forth a fine effort this season to achieve a record of 6 wins and 6 losses.

The Redcoats, coached by Jim Keefe, were led by seniors Jeff Bacslaski and Paula Gontarz. Although this year's team was young, the Berlin Redcoats scored well at all meets. At the Coginchaug Invitational as well as the Northwest Conference Meet, individual honors were taken by many team members.

This year, at the Sectional Meet, junior Greg Szczepanik qualified for the State Meet held at Timberlin Golf Course. The Redcoat Cross Country team shows much promise for future years.

Volleyball

The 1984 Girls Volleyball team turned in its best season ever. Coach Bob Tarigo guided the team to an outstanding 17-3 record.

Senior Co-Captains Ann Reagan and Kathy Luddy led the team with strong outside hitting while Lari Mangillo provided accurate sets to spark the team. The Super Spikers always took advantage of Lari's fine sets. Other standouts on the 1984 squad were juniors Kelly Ingalls and Pam Wallace.

The 1984 team qualified for the State Tournament. They defeated a strong Valley Regional squad in Round I, but fell to an overpowering team from Central Catholic High in Round II.

Basketball

1984-85 proved to be a very successful season for the Redcoat hoop squad. Coached by Ken Porciok, the team played its own brand of tightly organized basketball to earn a twelve and eight overall record, and a conference tally of seven and five.

Captains Michael Sirois and Bob Murphy paced the team with a strong assist by the only other senior, David Balfour.

Especially important to the team's seven game winning streak or the season's start were Sirois, Murphy, and junior Mike Veneziano.

The 1984-85 team's youth certainly promises great things for the next edition of Redcoat basketball.

Girls' Basketball

The 1984-1985 Girls' Basketball Team finished its season with a fine 12 and 8 record under the leadership of Coach George Hall. Led by senior Co-Captains Beth Fusco and Lori Mangillo, the team qualified for the state tournament for the first time in four years. The girls had a good shot at sharing N.W.C. championship, but hopes were dashed in a hard fought 58-57 double overtime loss to Plainville High School. The team nevertheless rallied after the Plainville game to win its final three games.

The Lady Redcoats enjoyed productive individual seasons with Captain Mangillo averaging 15 points per game, and Captain Fusco consistently leading the play or the defensive end. Starting juniors Kim Stanowski, Kelly Ingalls, and Pam Wallace displayed great talent which they will bring to the 1985-86 squad.

Berlin wrestlers enjoyed an especially successful year, finishing their campaign at 16 and 1 overall. The Patterson Way Grapplers clinched the Northwest Conference Championship with a 20 and 0 league record.

Coached by Jim Day and assistant Rich Hastings the wrestling team was captained by Ernie Mozzarella, Derrick Sanderson, Bill Ferrero, and Rich Buttrinas. As season's and Mozzarella received the Redcoat Award, while Sanderson earned the Most Valuable Player Coaches' Award. Ferrero was recognized with a special "Most Falls Award," cited for the most take downs was Buttrinas. Each captain was named to the All Conference team, where they were joined by Tim D'Addabbo, Rick Tamplings, Sal Urso, and Rocco Urso.

Berlin Wrestlers earned a second place trophy at the Class 5 Championship Meet. At this meeting Rich Buttrinas became the third state champion in Redcoat history by winning in the 134 pound class.

Outfielders were Artie Roy, Frank Naples, Mike Molly, Mike Sirols, and Dave Balfare. Pitching for the Redcoats were Mauro Gozzo, Frank Naples and Mike Malley. All-Conference members include Helmecki, Sisti, Mayer, Naples, and Gozzo. Gozzo is also a member of the All-State team and is the first player in B.H.S. history to be drafted into a major league organization.

This outstanding team made it to the finals of the class M State championship, but suffered a rough loss to Plainville. The Redcoats are looking forward to another winning season with Helmecki, Balfare, and Sirols returning as seniors.

The Girls' Redcoat Track and Field team had an outstanding season. Coached by Al Pellegrinelli and assistant coaches Shella McCabe and Jane Knaus, the team had a record of 27 wins and 2 losses for its 1983 and 1984 season: a record unsurpassed by any other team at Berlin High in recent years.

The 1985 seniors include Alicia Blake, Rachel Dufault, Sharan English, Rita Feale, Diane Flari, Patril Gantarz, Paula Gantarz, Lisa Lindsoy, and Sharan Pisko. Tremendous accomplishments were achieved by sophomore Danna Klapatch when she broke the school record in the 800, 1500, and 3000 meter run, and by Captain Cindy Johnson when she broke the record in the long jump.

Had it not been for the outstanding individual contributions made by each team member, the season would not have been as successful as it indeed was.

Freshman Class

The Class of '88 started the year off with a big splash by showing its spirit at the pep rally. The cohesion of the class was seen very clearly during Spirit Week, when many class members worked diligently to show the school that the Class of '88 was truly a part of BHS. The class treasury benefited immensely from an awesome effort in the magazine drive netting over $5,000 for the class. The class officers, Katie Criniti, Bob Ferrero, Clare Reibeling, and Alison Hodgson are working closely with their advisor, Miss Audrey Schubach, to make the Senior Breakfast, sponsored by the Class of '88, the biggest and best ever in the history of BHS. Berlin High School should be aware that the Class of '88 is a force to contend with.

Sophomores

The Class of 1987 enjoyed an excellent year. Thanks to the participation of many sophomores, their parents, and the class officers the class very successfully operated the fritter booth at the Berlin Fair. Once again with the hard work and talents of the "hall crew," the sophomores created the winning hallway during Spirit Week. Saturday Morning cartoons were the theme of the decorations.

Reflecting their concern for the plight of the hungry, sophomores donated $200.00 to the Save the Children relief effort through radio station WTIC-FM.

Officers Kurt, Chris, Lisa, and Koren worked hard all year to prepare for an exciting and event filled final two years at Berlin High.

Juniors

Karen Burger, Treasurer; Nicole Bozzuto, Secretary; Mrs. Gloria Frost, Advisor; Sharon Jones, President; Joe Campagna, Vice-President.

The Junior Class enjoyed a successful and profitable year under the direction of its advisor, Mrs. Gloria Frost. Officers, who were elected the previous spring, were: Sharon Jones, President; Joe Campagna, Vice President; Karen Burger, Treasurer; and Nikki Bozzuto, Secretary.

The class of 1986 demonstrated its fantastic organizational skills during Spirit Week. Graphic renditions of the "Fruit of the Loom" theme briefly adorned the school's corridors, and the juniors' loud and spirited voices brought the class to a victory in the cheering competition.

The Ring Dance in November topped even Thanksgiving as a festive event in the minds of many juniors. They wore the B.H.S. class rings proudly as they swirled about the dance floor.

Also in the fall, the juniors sold prodigious quantities of candy, which helped to defray the cost of the Junior Prom, which went off in grand style later in the year, on March 30. The prom, held at Marchegion Hall in New Britain, celebrated the theme of "One More Night."

The photographer catches these juniors off guard.

Seniors

Kathy Conner and Jim Bordinaro make the perfect Pebbles and Bam-Bam.

Freshman Year

During our second week of high school, we, the Class of 1985, held our first class elections. The newly elected officers were President Rito Feole, Vice President Bob Lomb, Secretary Sue Huber, and Treasurer Kim Moryka. The next big event was Spirit Week and the Wizard of Oz was the chosen theme. Next came Freshman Welcome Day, which was to be the last in B.H.S. history. On this day, we were dressed as Pebbles and Bam-Bam and at night, the seniors were dressed as space people. Some freshmen played games assigned by the seniors such as find the tennis ball in the Jell-O (blindfolded), and pass the Life-Saver on a toothpick. Homecoming took place on November 14th, and Kathy Conner was chosen to be Freshman Attendant. As our first year came to an end, we gave our Big Brothers and Sisters a farewell breakfast at which we dressed as punk rockers and said our goodbyes.

Even in bones and pincurls these freshmen are having a "Yobbo-dabba-do" time at initiation.

Sophomore Class

Sophomore year began with one new class officer, Treasurer Doreen Albert. Our Spirit Week theme was The Muppets and our Homecoming Attendant was Christine Fischer. As our sophomore year came to a close, we ordered class rings and planned for Junior Prom. We also held elections for the following year. The two new officers were Secretary Laurie Phaneuf and Treasurer Lisa Lindsay.

"Mark, did you say this class was boring?"

Beth Schubert and Monica Marciczkiewicz proudly display their class of 85 spirit week poster.

What happens after the 85th turn?

Junior Year

Junior year was a busy one. A circus theme was chosen for Spirit Week, and the Homecoming Attendant was Rito Feale. In November, we held a dance to celebrate the arrival of our new class rings. Junior Prom was held at Capra's. The band was Vonce Chopmon and the theme was "Truly." Chosen as Prom Queen was Laurie Phoneuf and her attendant was Sue Romon. The year ended with the beginning of planning for our Golden Senior Year.

Substitute — History

Mr. Wayne tells a student how to turn on a television.

This overhead shot of the high school appeared in the 1964 yearbook.

Berlin High School, 1951. How things have changed!

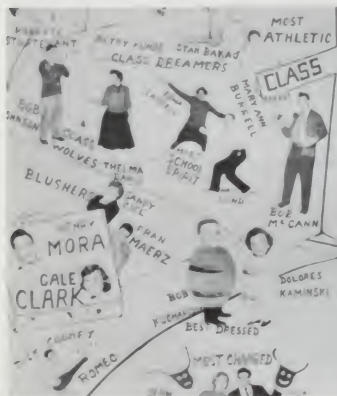

This is one of our very first Lamps. Contrary to popular belief, Mr. Sconnell was not the advisor on this one.

Back then, a lot of the teachers were just starting out. Are any of these faces familiar?

These are the senior football players. The Redcoats' football equipment has been modernized since this picture was taken.

Do some of the names seem familiar?

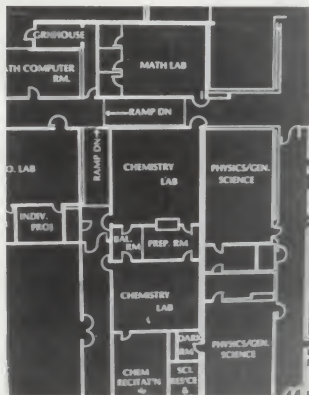

Mr. Goodrow, who retired in 1984, enjoyed a long and, as this 1955 picture demonstrates, appreciated career at B.H.S.

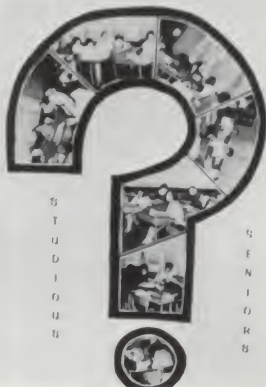

SPORTS

Uniforms may have changed, but the Redcoar spirit has certainly continued.

The new building was a puzzle to many, as shown by this 1975 Lamp cover.

Through the fifty year history of B.H.S., seniors have been asking, and discovering how to answer, questions.

Dear Reader:

Please do not skip the advertising section. Without it, the rest of the Lamp would not have been possible. Index compiled by Jeff Spiegel '87

The members of the 1985 Lamp would sincerely like to thank literary advisor Mr. Scannell and business advisor Mr. Pasco for all their help. Both contributed a great deal of their time and effort towards the successful completion of this year's yearbook. We would like them to know that their hard work was immensely appreciated. Without them, the success of this year's yearbook would not have been possible.

THAT'S ALL FOLKS!

It's Time to Celebrate!!!

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased from 10.5 million to 12.5 million, and the number of people aged 75 and over has increased from 4.5 million to 6.5 million (Office for National Statistics 2000).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of older people in the community. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for older people, which sets out a vision for the future of older people's health and care. The strategy is based on the following principles: older people should be able to live independently and actively in the community; older people should be able to access the services and support they need; and older people should be able to participate in decisions about their care and support. The strategy also sets out a number of key objectives, including: to improve the health and well-being of older people; to ensure that older people have access to the services and support they need; and to ensure that older people are able to participate in decisions about their care and support.

The strategy is a key document in the development of older people's services in the UK. It provides a framework for the development of policies and services for older people, and it sets out a number of key objectives that should be achieved by the year 2010.
